OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION

We understand that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting medical information about you. We create a record of the care and services you receive at this office. We need this record provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by the office, whether made by office personnel of your person doctor.

This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your medical information.

We are required by law to:

- Make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private;
- Give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical information and you; and
- Follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose medical information. For each category of uses or disclosures we will explain what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

Treatment- We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other office personnel who are involved in taking care of you at the office. Different departments of the office also may share medical information about you in order to coordinate the different things you need, such as prescriptions, lab work and x-rays. We also may disclose medical information about you to people outside the office who may be involved in your medical care after you leave the office, such as family members, clergy or others we use to provide services that are part of your care.

Payment- We may use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services you receive at the office, hospital, ambulatory surgery center, nursing home or other site may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company, or a third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about the services you received at the office, hospital or ambulatory surgery center, so that your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the services. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

Health Care Operations- We may use and disclose medical information about you for officer operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the office and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical information to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also combine medical information about many office patients to decide what additional services the office should offer, what services are not needed, and whether certain new treatments are effective. We may also disclose information to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, and other office personnel for review and learning purposes. We may also combine the medical information we have with medical information from other offices to compare how we are doing and see where we can make improvements in the care and services that we offer. We may remove information that identifies you from this set of medical information so that others may use it to study health care and health care delivery without learning who the specific patients are.

Appointment Reminders- We may use and disclose medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at the office.

Treatment Alternatives- We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Benefits and Services- We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care- We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care. We may also give information to someone who helps pay for your care. We may also tell your family or friends your condition and that you are in the hospital, ambulatory surgery center or office. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status, and location.

As Required By Law- We will disclose medical information about you when require to do so by federal, state or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety- We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threat.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS

Organ and Tissue Donation- If you are an organ donor, we may release medical information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

Military and Veterans- If you are a member of the Armed Forces, we may release medical information about you as required by military command authorities. We may also release medical information about foreign military personnel to the appropriate foreign military authority.

If you are a member of the Armed Forces, we may disclose medical information about you to the Department of Veterans Affairs upon your separation or discharge from the military services. This disclosure is necessary for the Department of Veteran Affairs to determine whether you are eligible for certain benefits.

Worker's Compensation- We may release medical information about you for your workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Public Health Risks- We may disclose information about you for public health activities. These activities generally include the following:

- To prevent or control disease, injury or disability;
- To report births or deaths;
- To report child abuse or neglect;
- To report reactions to medication or problems with products;
- To notify people of recalls of products they may be using;
- To notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at the risk for contracting or spreading a disease or condition; and
- To notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required by law.

Health Oversight Activities- We may disclose medical information to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. These oversight activities include, for example, audits, investigators, inspections, and licensure. These activities are necessary for the government to monitor the health care system, government programs, and compliance with civil rights laws.

Lawsuits and Disputes- If you are involved in a lawsuit or dispute, we may disclose medical information about you in response to a court or administrative order. We may also disclose medical information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request, or other lawful process by someone else involved in the dispute, but only if efforts have been made to tell you about the request or to obtain an order protecting the information requested.

Law Enforcement- We may release medical information if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:

- In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process;
- To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person;
- About the victim of a crime if, under certain limited circumstances, we are unable to obtain the persons agreement;
- About a death we believe may be the result of criminal conduct;
- About criminal conduct at the office or ambulatory surgery center; and
- In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors- We may release medical information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death. We may also release medical information about patients to funeral directors as necessary to carry out their duties.

National Security and Intelligence Activities- We may release medical information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other nation security activities authorized by law.

Protective Services for the President and Others- We may disclose medical information about you to authorized federal officials so they may provide protection to the President, other authorized persons or foreign heads of state or conduct special investigations.

Department of State- We may use medical information about you to make decisions regarding your medical suitability for a security clearance or service abroad. We may also release your medical sustainability determination to the officials in the Department of State who need access to that information for these purposes.

Inmates- If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release medical information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement officials. This release would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide you with health care; (2) to protect your health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institution.

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy- You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records, but this does not include psychotherapy notes.

To inspect and copying medical information that may be used to make decisions about you, you must submit your request in writing to:

Knoxville Gastrointestinal Specialists

Attn: Privacy Office

1819 Clinch Avenue, Suite 212

Knoxville, TN 37916

If you request a copy on the information, we may charge a fee as permitted by state law for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request.

We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the office will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to Amend- If you feel that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for the office.

To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to:

Knoxville Gastrointestinal Specialists

Attn: Privacy Officer

1819 Clinch Avenue, Suite 212

Knoxville, TN 37916

In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support your request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- Is not part of the medical information kept by or for the office;
- Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- Is accurate and complete.

Right to and Accounting of Disclosures- You have the right to request an "accounting of disclosures".

This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you.

To request this list of accounting disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to:

Knoxville Gastrointestinal Specialists

Attn: Privacy Officer

1819 Clinch Avenue, Suite 212

Knoxville, TN 37916

Your request must state a time-period that may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (for example, on paper, electronically). The first list you request within a 12-month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions- You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment of health care operation. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, like a family member or friend, for example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery that you had.

We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment. To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to:

Knoxville Gastrointestinal Specialists

Attn: Privacy Officer

1819 Clinch Avenue, Suite 212

Knoxville, TN 37916

In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply, for example, disclosures to your spouse.

Right to Request Confidential Communications- you have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you as work or by mail.

To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to:

Knoxville Gastrointestinal Specialists

Attn: Privacy Officer

1819 Clinch Avenue, Suite 212

Knoxville, TN 37916

We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice- You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact:
